Wall Street, Wednesday, Nov. 26-6 P. M. Without in any way approaching the magnitude of the transactions of a week ago or emulating the intense excitement which then existed, to-day's stock market showed a fair degree of strength and a very considerable interest in its fluctuations. This was hardly due to the condition of the list "en masse" (which rather tended downward), than to some extraneous and unexpected influences which made it tend the other way. These were to be found in an unlooked for improvement in the Vanderbilt railroads, which caused a raily in Lake Shore from 103½ to 105¼, and in Central and Hudson from 130 to 135. The story that Mr. Vanderbilt had sold out some	Government, bonds were very strong this afternoon, and closed at the following advanced prices: Bid. Asked.	200 New York and Colorado. 2.50 a
200,000 to 250,000 shares of Central and Hud- son stock to a syndicate of domestic and foreign bankers was renewed this morning. That the transaction is inexplicable remains as firmly entertained as ever, but there is every reason to believe it true. It seems to be out of the question that Mr. Vanderbilt should voluntarily yield the con- trol of the property to outside parties unless he be	were steady at 85. Railroad bonds were fairly active, and higher prices were obtained for most of the issues dealt in. There was a large business in the Erie new second consols. Following is a list of the sales:— $30000 Dist Col 3.65,c. 25 $5000 N Y, LE & W, n 2d, consol	Gold Placer 33 34 Tuscarora 26 28 At San Francisco the opening prices of mining shares were: Gould & Curry, 81½; Savage, 9½; Chollar, 7½; Ophir, 26½; Hale & Norcross, 14; Crown Point, 2.65; Yellow Jacket, 13¾; Beloher, 82,80; Imperial, ¾; Virgima Consolidated, 5; California, 4.85; Best & Belcher, 16½, assessed 1.00; Union Consolidated, 46; Alpha, 9½; Sierra Nevada, yellow Markey, 244; Silver, Hill, 1.40; Institute 2.10; Markey, 24,10; Silver, Hill, 1.40; Institute 2.10;
compensated for it in some other way. What that way is is just now a mystery. So far as the street has kept his books he has never been credited with more than $50,000,000 of the whole stock and the sale of $25,000,000 would effectually deprive him of any control in the management. Among other reports which are widely and wildly circulated it is given out that the sale is made subject to a retention of proxies for voting purposes by Mr. Vanderbilt, which, if true, would still continue the control of the road in his hands.	20000 do. 84% 50000 do 85% 15000 do 85% 15000 do. 84% 65000 do 85% 15000 do. 85% 15000 do. 85% 15000 do. 85% 15000 do. 85% 10000	40½; Mexican, 24½; Silver Hill, 1.40; Justice, 2.10; Julia, 2; Utah, 15½; Alta, 3¾; Bechtel, 1.55; Segregated Belcher, 12; Mono, 4½; Consolidated Pacifia, 6; Potosi, 4½; Exchequer, 4; Mammoth, 6; North Standard, 1.25; Boston Consolidated, 1.55; Original Keystone, 3.65. The whole idea is so unbusiness like and so unlikely to be accepted by buyers of the stock who may be desirous of having a word to say in the management of their own property that it is scarcely credible. The rumor mongers were further prepared to-day to tell us how Mr. Vanderbilt proposed to invest the proceeds of his sale. He was to give up an investment which yields him eight per cent and reinvest in governments, which will return him a little less than four. He is to buy Erie at present prices, bounce the stock to higher figures and make a handsome turn on the rise, or failing in these he is to strike hands with Mr. Gould and look for a favorable speculation among this gentleman's Westward lines. the same sort were made by the street to-day, which, having little or no money of its own to invest, is ever fertile of advice and suggestions to the capitalists who have. Nevertheless it appears to be a fixed fact that whatever Mr. Vanderbilt may do with his money the sale has been made. All this created considerable perturbations in Eric, which was weak and strong by turns, but eventually closed at nearly the highest figures of the day. Whether the Central transaction was to be blissful or baleful to this stock occasioned considerable doubt. The ruling opinion seemed to be that Vanderbilt had obtained the control of Eric, and would	2000 Mor & Ex, 1st cn 108\cdot	Justice 2 Wales 334 Kossuth 5-32 Yellow Jacket 13 Leeds 7-16 Overman has levied an assessment of $2 per share and Grand Prize an assessment of 75 cents per share. not lose the control of Central. He would be thus enabled to wash one hand with the other. When Central carned too much money and there was a danger of legislative inspection the traffic could be diverted over Erie; when Erie picked up in market price and prices rose a good short sale would be engineered by diverting the traffic back to New York Central. It is a good thing to have two strings to one's bow, and Mr. Vanderbilt is accredited with being an expert at drawing them, short or long. WILLIE SPRAGUE'S TUTOR.

HIS SUIT IN THE MARINE COURT AGAINST MRS. SPRAGUE-THE LATTER'S CONFIDENCE IN THE INSTRUCTOR OF HER BOY-JUDGE SINNOTT'S ORDER.

The unhappy controversy which for some time past has been going on between Senator William Sprague, of Rhode Island, and his wife was partially revived yesterday before Judge Sinnott, in Chambers of the Marine Court, in the form of a side issue in relation to the pay of a tutor for his services in the family. George Link, a German tutor, says he was employed by Mrs. Sprague in this city, in June last, as tutor to her son. Willie, at a salary of $50 a month with board and travelling expenses. He went to the family residence, Canonchet, near Narragansett Pier, and there remained until Mr. Sprague gave him an order to leave the premises. He alleges that the engagement was for three months, and that since his discharge he l tract, on account of which he claims $240. To re-cover this sum he entered a suit in the Marine Sprague in person, to which she put in an answer that she was a married woman, that the services rendered were a family charge, and that she as a married woman was not liable in law for payment reply, and yesterday a motion was made by Mr. L. H. Arnold, on behalf of Mrs. Sprague, for an order reply, and yesterday a motion was made by Mr. L. H. Arnold, on behalf of Mrs. Sprague, for an order directing that Link (the plaintiff) shall serve a reply to the answer. The motion was opposed by Mr. D. McL. Shaw as counsed for the plaintiff, he claiming that Mrs. Sprague was not a married woman in the sense contemplated by the Exemption law, she having voluntarity deserted the home of her husband and lived apart from him, and that in any event she had contracted this debt on her own personal account, and veluntarity made her individual property liable therefore. In support of this latter assertion counsel for the plaintiff read several letters written to him by Mrs. Sprague. In one of these, dated July 7 last, from Edgewood, she says:—'in view of what has occurred at Narragansett, which has greatly shocked and distressed me on account of its discourtesy to you, I rejoice that, governed by mature reflection, I concluded to trust you and be quite frank with you. Your letter just received proves how right I was in giving you my confidence. I thank you sincerely for the good judgment you exhibit both as to the manner in which you treat Governor Sprague expressing my grave disapprobation as to his disturbing Willie. I have written to Governor Sprague expressing my grave disapprobation as to his disturbing Willie, and requested him to return the boy at once to your charge, making it, indeed, a condition of my remaining at Narragansett."

Another Letter.

Three days later she writes from the same place a
